Du Façade Audition Sides

Allan Apple (late 20s-30s, Caucasian):
"Hey, look, it's cool. I don't have a problem with gays, just so long as they don't bother me. I don't believe in gay marriage – it's not natural. So long as they don't bother me- I won't bother them. I got gay friends or whatever so I don't care. Look, I don't even understand why it's such a big deal anyway! They're just like any other group of people.

Marshall Jackson (30s-40s, African-American Male, Bodybuilder):
"We ain't raising a bunch a' punks around here! Stop movin' like that! Didn't I tell you to stop walkin' like that? Where is your girlfriend? Why you don't have a girlfriend? Keep your hands down to your side when you're walking! If I see you do that again, I'm beating your ass!

Tanny Jackson (40s, African-American Female):
"Where were you last night? Where did you go? You better not went to see that boy. You daddy will beat your ass. Gimme your keys – right now. I know you called him last night. I don't want you goin' over there ever again.

Pierce Jackson (18-25, African-American Male):
"Momma, what are you talkin' about? I just went to the store! Who are you talkin' about! Just because I go somewhere at night you think I'm doin' all this…stuff! And why can't I go out at night?

Reverend Paul Fitcher (50s, Caucasian Male):
"The lord sayeth that homosexuality is a sin – it is indeed a violation of the word. I've spent considerable time trying to reconcile what society is telling me is now "equal," and I just can't go with that. To make the unnatural natural I can't put together in my head. Man is meant to be with woman and woman is meant to be with man. That's how it's been since the beginning of time and that's the only way I know."

Sharon Fitcher (40s-50s, Cacuasian Female):
"My family is Christian conservative and we're proud of it. With all this stuff goin' on I'm proud to say that I believe in the same things that I knew were right even when I was a child. I just don't understand all this….craziness goin' on. What are people comin' to sayin' that same-sex marriage is normal?

Felipe Cisneros (40s, Hispanic Male):
"Paulito- where are you going? Your mother and I want you to meet Paula's daughter. She's a pretty girl and she just turned eighteen. She likes you. Just come by and say hello. I don't see you around any other girls, so she would be very nice for you.

Alejandro Cisneros (18-25, Hispanic Male):
"Dad, I'll go see her, okay? I been working, I've been too busy! She never paid attention to me anyway. Why do you keep asking me?"

Raja Quetesos (18-27, Hispanic male):
Hey, what's going on Alejandro? You talk to that girl the other day? How was she? Look, if you don't want her, hand her over to me. I'll take care of her."

Paola Jiminez (16-25, Hispanic female):
"Hey, Alejandro, what's up? Do you wanna go to the mall? How about ice skating? Come on, I'm bored! Let's go! There's nothing to do around here but watch tv! You dad is fine – he doesn't care! Let's go!"

Rich Ferrell (18-45, Caucasian male):
"Look, I don't care what anybody has to say, or their opinions – I'm gonna do what I wanna do and live the way I wanna live, period. Opinions don't pay my bills – I do. All that crap about society – I couldn't care less. My life, my rules, end of story.

Bobby Potz (18-45, Caucasian male):
"Hey, man, I'm just here to get paid. In cash, no checks, no credit cards. It's all about the money, period. No BS. Please don't waste my time."

Brice Fitcher (15-23, Caucasian male):
"Dad, I don't wanna go to church today! I'm tired! I just came back from practice and I wanna go hang out. Just let me stay home! Mom says I don't have to go – she said we can go tomorrow. Just let me chill."

Kelly Fitcher (15-23, Caucasian, female):
"Mom, I'm gonna go to Sherry's house and hang out for a while. I've already done my homework. Tell Brice he can clean up himself – I'm not doing that. I'll be home before 9, okay? Tell dad I'll see him when he gets in. Bye."

Tyler Leeks (25-40, Caucasian male):
"Look, you've gotta make decision – either we do what we want or we mold ourselves around other people. I don't care about other people – I'm here with you. I don't give a sh*t whether they agree or not – I'm not looking for their acceptance"

Senator Bob Kyle (45-70, Caucasian male):
"Our great country has seen tremendous change since its founding – our amendment process allows for this kind of flexibility. Some hard lessons were learned but in the long run, they made us a better nation. And I'm proud to call myself American. We should set the example for the world to follow."
